AMERICAN AIR

AMERICAN AIRLINES, INC.
Lockheed L-188A Electra

American purchased thirty-five turboprop Electras and operated them on short to medium-haul routes between 1959 and 1970. This particular aircraft, shown in its second color scheme, was originally christened "Flagship Newark." It flew with American for ten years, until its sale in 1970.

Published by Aviation World, Inc., P.O. Box 168, Bethel, CT 06801 U.S.A.

L-022
94304-D

post card

Photo by Bob K.

N6120A C/N 1081